Jockeys Claim More Notice Than Their Mounts at Aqueduct---Rain Prevents Play in Clay Court Tennis

BUTWELL OUTSHINES POSSIBLE WINNERS AT ALL BUT ONE RIDER

McCahey Beats Him in Pair of Close Finishes, but One Ride Is a Classic.

BOY, NOT HORSE, WINNER

Horses cut little figure as a matter of interest at Aqueduct compared to utwell duplicated his ride on Roamer the Queens County Handicap and ade Marshon beat Penalty, which was ten pound better horse, by a nose.

Butwell's personality caused Marshon to be made a 7 to 10 favorite over Penalty, which, though facuring to beat Marshon on past performances, was handicapped by carry. formances, was handicapped by carry-ing the little known jockey Mink. Marshon was outpaced in the early run-ning, which was cut out by Sepulveda, but worked into third place making the turn for home. In the stretch Penalty took command and Butwell, saving ground on the turn to the home stretch got up on even terms with Penalty at the eighth pole. This effort used up the ounce of Marshon's stamina and Butwell worked with whip and sour all through that last eighth, and though no fault could be found with there will be play to-morrow, as a steady Mink's handling of Penalty the skilled downpour all day has put the courts in Sound the cymbals for two kinds of independence joy!

Rip things right up the back on the Fourth! Because it's the nation's birthday, and because Prince Albert tobacco has set free men who yearned for the joys of jimmy pipe "packing" and real cigarette makin's-and who shied at tortured tongues and throats! Bang-away like it's freedom's frolic!

Kick-off the covers early. Let the orators pump patriotism into your spirit while you puff P. A. into your smokeappetite! And keep on puffing "P. A. forever" because it's the happiest, the truest tobacco you could wish to jam in a jimmy pipe or roll into a cigarette! The patented process fixes that! And removes the bite and parch! It'll be a regular celebration, via the national joy smoke

Open up a toppy red bag of P. A. (mighty handy for rollers) or a tidy red tin, like it was a package from home, then you'll know why men smoke Prince Albert and boom Prince Albert from one land's end to the other! Get that independence spirit on the tobacco question!

So, unlimber your jimmy pipes or makin's papers—and fire away! Because, men, Prince Albert will put new ideas of tobacco goodness into your system. Just write it down in your little diary, "Today I started smoking Prince Albert." This is the joy'us time to become pals with P. A.
